COMMUNITIES ARE THE BEST WAY TO REACH

People living with HIV

Adolescents and young people

Women and girls

Gay men and other men who have sex with men

Transgender people

Sex workers

People who use drugs

COMMUNITIES ARE AN ESSENTIAL PART OF A MODERN HEALTH SYSTEM

Promoting HIV prevention

U=U

Facilitating HIV testing

FREE HEALTH SERVICES

Helping pregnant women living with HIV to deliver HIV-free babies

Supporting people living with HIV to stay on treatment

Supporting men to access health services

Delivering HIV treatment at the doorstep

Monitoring stock-outs and the quality of services

COMMUNITIES make the difference

COMMUNITIES ARE THE TORCHBEARERS OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Acting to change laws that discriminate

Monitoring and alerting human rights violations

Speaking up against discrimination

Helping people claim their rights

EQUALITY

Standing up for sexual and reproductive health and rights

COMMUNITIES HAVE THE TRUST OF THE PEOPLE THEY SERVE

Standing up in solidarity

Offering safety

Reducing stigma in the community

Providing social support

Treating people with respect and dignity

INVESTING IN COMMUNITIES IS VALUE FOR MONEY

Developing a new generation of leaders

Allocating money where the needs are the greatest

Building local capacity and networks to respond to any crisis

Creating sustainable programmes with local networks

COMMUNITIES ARE LEADERS IN INNOVATION
Supporting the quest for a vaccine and cure

Adopting new technologies

Finding new platforms to reach people and provide services