

JULY 2014

978-1-62313-1562

“We Are Also Dying of AIDS”

Barriers to HIV Services and Treatment for Persons with Disabilities in Zambia

Map of Zambia	i
Glossary	ii
Summary	1
Key Recommendations	8
Methodology	10
I. Background	13
HIV/AIDS Epidemic in Zambia	13
Persons with Disabilities in Zambia	15
Vulnerability of Persons with Disabilities to HIV	17
II. Barriers to HIV Services and Poor Quality of Care	21
Pervasive Stigma and Discrimination	21
Barriers to HIV Prevention Services	27
Barriers to Voluntary HIV Counseling and Testing Services	34
Barriers to Treatment, Care, and Support	40
III. Vulnerability of Children and Women with Disabilities	51
Neglect of Children with Disabilities and Impact on HIV Treatment	51
Vulnerability of Women and Girls with Disabilities to Sexual Violence	52
IV. Relevant International, Regional, and Domestic Law	57
International Legal Obligations	57
Zambian National Law and Policies	65
V. Inclusion of People with Disabilities in Zambia’s National HIV Response	68
Role of National Agencies and Civil Society	69
Role of Donors	70

VI. Examples of Inclusive and Targeted HIV Services.....	72
Good Practices in Zambia	72
Good Practices in Southern Africa	73
Recommendations	75
To the Government of Zambia and the Zambia National Assembly	75
To the National HIV/AIDS/STI/TB Council, Zambia Agency for Persons with Disabilities, Ministry of Community Development, Mother and Child Health, and the Ministry of Health	75
To the Ministry of Community Development, Mother and Child Health	77
To the Zambia Agency of Persons with Disabilities and DPOs	78
To the Ministry of Community Development, Mother and Child Health and the Ministry of Health and the Central Statistics Office	78
To the Ministry of Home Affairs, the Zambian Police (Especially the Victim Support Unit), Ministry of Gender and Child Development	78
To the Ministry of Education, Science, Vocational Training and Early Education	79
To UN Agencies and the UN Special Rapporteurs	79
To Donor Countries and Donor Agencies working on HIV/AIDS including the Global Fund and PEPFAR	80
Acknowledgments	81