

Contents

Introduction	5
HCV, but that is now easy to cure?	6
HCV and transmission	8
HIV, HCV and sexual transmission	10
Transmission of HCV to a baby during pregnancy	17
Natural history of HCV	18
How can I protect my liver?	22
Finding out you have HCV – and getting support	24
Testing and monitoring	26
DAAs: HCV treatment and management	30
Old HCV drugs: peginterferon and ribavirin	36
Advanced liver disease	37
Drug interactions with HCV meds	39
HCV treatment and people who inject drugs	40
Getting DAAs: drug pricing and access	41
Future drugs	44
Controversial issues	45
Further information – web links and resources	46
Glossary	48
Feedback	49
i-Base publications	50
Notes	51

Written and compiled by Simon Collins and Tracy Swan for HIV i-Base.

Thanks to a review group of people living with HIV and HCV and to the medical advisory group for medical comments.

Not-for-profit copying is encouraged or call for additional free copies.

Disclaimer: information in this booklet is not intended to replace information from your doctor. Treatment decisions should always be taken in consultation with your doctor.

HIV and HCV information dates quickly, please call to see if an up-date is available.

Thanks to MAC AIDS Fund for funding this guide.